He Makana:

The Gertrude Mary Joan Damon Haig Collection of Hawaiian Art, Paintings and Prints

October 15 - December 23, 2017

Tue - Sun, 10 am - 5 pm, Schaefer International Gallery

Also open on evenings of select Castle Theater events. Closed Nov 23 & Dec 2.

He Makana, meaning "a gift," is a distinguished collection of paintings, prints, and traditional art forms of Hawai'i from the 1890s-1970s, that capture the history and nostalgia of old Hawai'i. Among the treasures to be seen are paintings by three giants of early 20th century island painting: Lionel Walden, D. Howard Hitchcock, and Madge Tennent.

This exhibition is presented in partnership with the Art in Public Places Collection from the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, and is supported in part by The Rice Partnership, Hawai'i Tourism Authority, and the County of Maui - Office of Economic Development.

Hawaiian Boy in a Canoe, D. Howard Hitchcock, oil on canvas, 1896

Mindfulness, meditation, and indoctrination: are they different? Trump, ISIS, and the globalization of corporate totalitarianism: are they the same? Alan Clements' shows are "a scorching comedic romp through the world of spiritual and political indoctrination." (Tricycle: The Buddhist Review)
Tickets: $31, $35, $41

ABE LAGRIMAS, JR. TRIO

Thursday, Nov 16, 7:30 pm, McCoy Studio Theater

Every one of Abe's albums – Dimensions, A Pass Out Records Christmas, 'Ukulele Vibes, Solo 'Ukulele: The King of Pop, Rhythm & Uke – has been nominated for Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards. His first Nā Hōkū win was for the "King of Pop" album, that pays tribute to Michael Jackson with unique solo 'ukulele arrangements. Abe is most well known as a drummer, but equally as proficient on vibraphone and 'ukulele. He has performed globally on all three, most notably with South Korea's top jazz group, Prelude. The trio includes Noel Okimoto on drums and Dean Taba on bass. Tickets: $35; half-price kids 3-12
