THE COLOR FESTIVAL HAWAI'I

Sunday, Apr 1, 1 - 5 pm, Events Lawn

Imua Family Services presents a fund-raiser and friend-raiser, in a family-friendly, inclusive gathering. Featuring energetic music for dancing from DJ Boomshot, Eric Gilliom & Band, Shea Butter & The Cream, and Yum Yum Beast; special guest performances by Teal Wicks and Matt Doyle. Festivities lead up to a "throwing of colors" at 4 pm. If you want to participate in the color-throwing, please wear comfortable shoes and white/light clothing that can get "colorful" with the cornstarch powder; bandanas & sunglasses recommended for face & eye protection. Tickets: $20 w/1 color pack, $25 w/3 color packs; $15 age 6-16 , w/ 1 color pack. Free for keiki up to 5 years

STARRY NIGHT CINEMA: THE LEGO® BATMAN MOVIE

Friday, Apr 6, gates 6 pm / film 7:30 pm, A&B Amphitheater

Batman and Robin must try to save Gotham City from The Joker! Bring a low-back beach chair and/or a blanket to spread out on the lawn to watch the movie on our big outdoor screen for a great free family fun night! Come early to enjoy pre-show entertainment and an art activity for the kids before the film, and enter our prize giveaway. FREE! If it's rainy, the movie will be shown in Castle Theater: seats first come/first served. Sorry, no coolers or outside food/beverages allowed.

SCHOOL MUSIC CONCERT SERIES

Join our talented young students in the Castle Theater for the annual concerts by Maui school music departments. These events allow the next generation of musicians to experience the same world-class stage setting that the superstars enjoy. Each concert is open to the public, and FREE!

BROTHER NOLAND: HIS SONGS, HIS STORIES, HIS STYLE

Friday, Apr 6, 7:30 pm, McCoy Studio Theater

Widely considered as the 'father of Jawaiian music,' after his song "Coconut Girl" hit the airwaves, Brother Noland is known for his unique interpretations of songs that remain respectful to traditional music and culture. He's won numerous Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards, and received a Lifetime Achievement in Music award. Fluid in both slack key and standard guitar tuning, Brother Noland goes wherever the music carries him. Tickets: $35, $45, $65

JACKSON BROWNE

Sunday, Apr 8, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

Jackson Browne has released 18 albums, and his most recent, Standing in the Breach, is a collection that is both deeply personal and political, exploring love, hope, and defiance in the face of advancing uncertainties. Jackson is known for his advocacy on behalf of the environment, human rights, and arts education. Accompanying Jackson are his longtime band mates: Bob Glaub, bass; Mauricio Lewak, drums; Val McCallum, guitar; Alethea Mills and Chavonne Stewart, vocals; Jeff Young, keyboards; and the acclaimed multi-instrumentalist Greg Leisz on guitar, lap steel, pedal steel. Tickets: $49, $59, $89, $125, $150

VIEUX FARKE TOURÉ

Thursday, Apr 12, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

Called '"The Jimmy Hendrix of the Sahara," singer/guitarist Vieux is the son of Grammy-winning West African musician, Ali Farka Touré – but has gained fame and acclaim of his own as one of the pre-eminent names in World Music. His music pays homage to the beauty and culture of his native Mali, even as the country suffers through territorial conflicts." This is the devotional, earthy soul of Mali, channeled through a six-string electric guitar." (Dominic Valvona) Tickets: $35 advance; $40 day-of-show

THREE MAUI DIVAS: AMY HĀNAIALI'I, NĀPUA GREIG, RAIATEA HELM

Friday, Apr 13, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

Three divine vocalists take the stage for one divine evening of song and music. Each is a multiple Nā Hōkū Hanohano Award-winner in her own right, and each has a voice and stage presence that carries star-power wattage. Together, with all that talent, they'll present a memorable concert event! Tickets: $12, $25, $35, $45; ½ price kids 3-12

BILL McKIBBEN IN THE GREEN ROOM

Wednesday, Apr 18, 7:00 pm, McCoy Studio Theater

The Merwin Conservancy presents an intimate evening with Bill McKibben, environmentalist and author of a dozen books and frequent contributor to many publications. *The End of Nature, (p.*1989) is regarded as the first book for a general audience about climate change, and has appeared in 24 languages. McKibben is founder of 350.org, the first and largest global grassroots climate change movement. Foreign Policy named him to their list of the world's 100 most important global thinkers. There will be a Q&A session after his presentation, with book signing and courtyard reception. Tickets: $25; students with ID $10

ARTIST 2 ARTIST: HENRY KAPONO/JERRY SANTOS

Thursday, Apr 19, 7:30 pm, McCoy Studio Theater

Henry Kapono hosts Jerry Santos of Olomana. This concert series features the two musicians playing off each other in an intimate format, that offers the audience a rare opportunity to get an up-close-and-personal seat at their jam session! The artists talk story and share stories from their lives and careers, and will also take questions from the audience. Tickets: $35, $45, $65

$4 facility fee added to each ticket; other fees may apply, varying by event

PRIMUS

Friday, Apr 20, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

Primus is characterized by its irreverent, quirky approach to music. Journalist Robert Christgau once remarked, "[Primus is] quite possibly the strangest Top Ten band ever, and good for them." The trio's alt/punk, avant-garde, psychedelic style and surreal lyrics resulted in some of rock's unlikeliest hits, including "Tommy the Cat," "Jerry Was A Race Car Driver," and "Wynona's Big Brown Beaver, " and the original theme song for the TV show, South Park. Tickets: $35, $45, $55; prices increase $5 day-of-show

MAHALO UNCLE WILLIE K - BENEFIT CONCERT

Saturday, Apr 21, 1 - 8 pm / gates 12n A&B Amphitheater

Willie Kahaiali'i, aka Willie K, has made his mark on Hawai'i's music scene with his dynamic stage performances and diverse repertoire. He was recently diagnosed with lung cancer and the medical costs are mounting – but this benefit event will be a day of celebration, with awesome music, free keiki fun, and 'ono food options. (Check the artist line-up as it develops, on MauiArts.org) Tickets: $25 GA not seated; $50 GA seated; $250 reserved VIP seats; 5 & under free

CAZIMERO LEI DAY CONCERT

Saturday, Apr 28, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

Kumu Hula Robert Uluwehi Cazimero will perform in this perennially popular Lei Day event, along with the musicians and dancers from his award-winning Hālau Nā Kamalei – big winners at the 2015 Merrie Monarch Festival. Enjoy the smooth showmanship, talent, and graciousness of Robert Cazimero, along with contemporary Hawaiian music and hula. Tickets: $12, $28, $40, $55; ½ price kids 3-12

Ho'onanea pre-show festivities start at 5:30 pm in the courtyard, with live music, and hula by Pā'ū O Hi'iaka under the direction of Kumu Hula Hōkūlani Holt. There will be local craft vendors, and lei makers with fresh lei available for purchase.
