Hula Ma‘i

Thu, September 12
7:30 PM | McCoy Studio Theater

Traditional procreation chants and dances celebrate and encourage the continuation of ali‘i family lines, but these Hula Ma‘i can be misunderstood in modern context. This presentation will look at several chants as poetical expressions, including their hula form. Facilitated by Kumu Hula Hōkūlani Holt; hula by Pā‘ū O Hi‘iaka, Hālau Kamaluokaleihulu, Hālau Nā Lei Kaumaka O Uka, and Hālau O Ka Hanu Lehua. Parental discretion advised.

Tickets: $25
Kū Mai Ka Hula

SAT, SEPTEMBER 14
1:00 PM  |  CASTLE THEATER

The MACC and Kauahea Inc. present hālau from Hawai‘i, the U.S. continent, and Japan, with both kāne and wahine adults competing solo and in groups, performing kahiko (traditional) and ‘auana (modern) hula stylings. Outside the theater, attendees can browse an array of Hawai‘i products by crafters and artisans.

Tickets: $25, ½ kids 12/under

7:30 PM  |  CASTLE THEATER

Powered by evocative song craft, jaw-dropping guitar playing, and indefinable spirit, this venerable icon is on Rolling Stone’s list of “100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time.” Among his many accolades (including the honor of an OBE bestowed upon him by Queen Elizabeth) are Lifetime Achievement Awards from the BBC and the Americana Music Association. Richard Thompson recently released his nineteenth solo album 13 Rivers.

Tickets: $40, $55, $65
Christian Sands Trio

THU, OCTOBER 10
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

Christian Sands is currently one of the most in-demand pianists working in jazz, and he has toured the world as a bandleader. Sands has an affable understanding of the audience; he recognizes the innate desire to be entertained as well as enlightened, so he may include other genres. “Pop music is essential in jazz. It’s new melodies, new stories, or the same stories told in different ways. Jazz is about storytelling, and pop music has a unique story to tell.”

Tickets: $40, $50, ½ kids 12/under

MAMo at the MACC: Wearable Art Show

SAT, OCTOBER 12
7:30 PM | YOKOUCHI PAVILION

Trunk Show Preview, 6:00 pm

A component of the Maoli Arts Movement, this event celebrates Hawaiian design in fabric and clothing in ways that make it more than a usual fashion runway show! This year’s featured designers include Ari South, Kēhaulani Nielsen, Kanoealani Davis, Maile Andrade, Kawika Lum, Marques Marzan, Micah Kamohoali‘i, Anna Kahalekulu, Tunui Tully and Ānuenue De Soto.

Arts in Education

Preparing Maui’s students for the future since 1995, MACC and the Department of Education, Maui District, have been members of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts’ Partners in Education program, a national network of over 100 performing art centers and school districts. The focus of our partnership is threefold: offering professional development for teachers, providing arts learning for students, and cultivating artists to be leaders and teachers. Over 1,200 classroom teachers have participated in workshops and summer institutes taught by innovative teaching artists that result in lessons that empower Maui students to create, collaborate, and think critically. Students from all schools in Maui County have access to performances, exhibits, and hands-on art immersion field trips. See more at MauiArts.org — click the education tab!

Artists in the Community

Maui Arts & Cultural Center continues its commitment to bringing the arts and artists to the surrounding areas through its Artists in the Community outreach program. In free events held last season at Maui County schools, senior centers, and social service agencies, the MACC shared its visiting and local artists with 3,621 people at 44 events held throughout Maui County, including Hāna, Lāna‘i, and Moloka‘i. This continuing commitment actively demonstrates that the arts help build community and provide an invaluable opportunity for personal connections and unique experiences for both artists and audience.

Abstraction×3
April 14 – May 31, 2020
Opening Reception April 11
Three artists from Hawai‘i individually address issues informing abstraction in the 21st century. Debra Drexler’s work communicates on many levels, through the dynamics of temperature, saturation, and focus. Maui artist Don Bernshouse investigates the complexities of the human condition through a daily art-making practice with a variety of materials. Tom Lieber uses nature as inspiration in large-scale bold canvases imbued with dynamic gestural marks.

Art and Activism:
An Exhibition About Change
August 25 – October 31, 2019
Opening Reception August 24
This invitational assembles a group of artists whose work addresses perspectives on politics, environment, and gender through the mediums of printmaking, fiber arts, and installation. Participating artists are: Sandow Birk and Elyse Pignolet, Orly Cogan, Kanani Miyamoto, Paul Mullowney, and Abigail Romanchak.

Art Maui
March 8 – 29, 2020
Opening Reception March 7
Art Maui returns for its 42nd annual juried show featuring an array of work from Maui’s vibrant artist community, showcasing talents across a wide spectrum of media.

The Woodworker’s Journey:
Concept to Creation
January 7 – February 23, 2020
Opening Reception January 5
We have invited an exceptional group of 25 artists from Hawai‘i and the mainland U.S. with distinguished careers in woodworking to create one new piece for this exhibition. The work may be utilitarian or conceptual in design, with a refined conventional appeal or freeform fusion approach, using wood as the primary material.

SeedLab: The Growing of Ideas
June 14 – July 12, 2020
Opening Reception June 13
The gallery will become a creative play space for cultivating ideas with an ongoing work-in-progress under the guidance of artist-in-residence, Wes Sam-Bruce, who made the unforgettable fort in the gallery, Taken By Wonder, 2013. Thematic learning areas will invite folks of all ages to contribute to a multimedia art installation.

Gallery Hours:
Open Tuesday – Sunday, 10 am – 5 pm. Closed on Mondays. Also open before select Castle Theater shows and during intermissions.
Maui Arts & Cultural Center relies on funding from a wide variety of sources to support its activities. Ticket prices cover only a portion of the costs at the MACC. Your support does the rest. Mahalo!

Food & Beverages

There are several dining and beverage options to make your experience at the MACC more enjoyable. Our full-service bar in the courtyard serves a variety of cocktails and non-alcoholic drinks—along with coffee, tea and sweets—before most shows in the Castle Theater and extending through intermissions. We also offer bar selections and snacks in the McCoy courtyard for shows in that theater. For events in the A&B Amphitheater, we offer a wide range of snacks and meals, produced by Maui chefs, restaurants, and caterers—including popular food trucks. Each show/event has a customized menu: just click the link on each event page on our website calendar to find the options for that particular date.
