Statement March 15, 2020

In support of current County, State, and Federal governmental and health agency recommendations, and in light of the worldwide efforts to contain the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19), Maui Arts & Cultural Center (the MACC) has postponed all public programming until further notice. This decision is guided by our commitment to help ensure the health and safety of the entire community. We make this difficult announcement in coordination with our many partners in the visual and performing arts, including artists both local and global, island vendors, schools, and our MACC employees, Board, and volunteers.

The arts have historically been a source of comfort, inspiration, and respite during trying times, so it is with both concern for the present and hope for the near future that we make this decision to limit public interactions during this period of threat to public health. We understand the social responsibility of an institution like the MACC, and strive to help keep the whole community healthy in mind, body, and spirit. This is a pause in the programming — an intermission, in theater terms. We look forward to the day when we can announce a resumption in schedule, and continue to bring the enriching power of the arts to all on Maui. We will remain in contact with any further updates through our website, email and social media sites.

Specific ticketing and exchange info can be addressed by the MACC Box Office. Regular telephone hours are Tuesday-Saturday, 10:00 am-6:00 pm; phone 808-242-SHOW (7469).
