Akihiko Izukura:
The Way of Natural Textiles

January 15 - March 19, 2017

Schaefer International Gallery, Tue-Sun, 10 am-5 pm FREE Admission!

Also open before Castle Theater shows and during intermission

Textile artist Akihiko Izukura from Kyoto, Japan, has created a new installation in the gallery, made with yards of handwoven natural dyed silk and bamboo. His work reveals an investigative mind and creative spirit, bound together by a philosophy that honors the sustainability of and symbiosis with nature.

To further enhance the visitor experience, San Francisco-based composer Christopher Willits was commissioned to create an ambient sound collage for this exhibit.

DAVID SEDARIS

Tuesday, Feb 7, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

A sardonic sense of humor and incisive social critique have made David Sedaris one of NPR's most popular commentators. Wicked and witty observations of the ordinary/bizarre are gleaned from his life: oddities of his childhood in Raleigh, peculiar career path in NYC, and journeys beyond U.S. shores. This is an evening of recollections and readings from new work, with Q&A; book-signing afterward. Tickets: $32, $39.50, $47, $62

ROSIE HERRERA DANCE THEATRE

Thursday, Feb 9, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

A fixture on the contemporary arts scene of Miami, and now recognized nationally. The program includes: Cookie's Kid, a solo dance theater work utilizing Herrera's diverse performance background (cabaret, classical music, urban/contemporary dance) to dissect the oppression of 'toughness'; and Dining Alone, which addresses the inherent drama and comedy attached to food and meals. Tickets: $35, $45

In the Green Room: BILL PORTER

Friday, Feb 10, 7:00 pm, McCoy Studio Theater

The Merwin Conservancy presents an evening with Bill Porter (aka Red Pine), a travel writer and renowned translator of Chinese literature, poetry, and sacred Buddhist and Taoist texts. Porter's work opens up these challenging texts to the English-speaking world. Includes author talk, Q&A, and book-signing reception with pūpū & beverages. Sponsored by FIM Group to benefit the nonprofit Merwin Conservancy. Tickets: $25; $10 students w/ID

JAKE SHIMABUKURO WITH MAUI POPS

Saturday, Feb 11, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

There is no doubt that Jake Shimabukuro embodies the heart and soul of 'ukulele music, wringing emotion, beauty, meaning, and thrills out of four strings as he draws from influences across the musical spectrum. For this great occasion, Jake is joined by the Maui Pops Orchestra – adding a lush symphonic accompaniment to his own dazzling fretwork and ambitious repertoire. Tickets: $45, $55, $65, $85
