He Makana

The Gertrude Mary Joan Damon Haig Collection of Hawaiian Art, Paintings and Prints

through December 23rd

Tue - Sun, 10 am - 5 pm, Schaefer International Gallery

Also open on evenings of select Castle Theater events. Closed Dec 2.

He Makana, meaning "a gift," is a distinguished collection of paintings, prints, and traditional art forms of Hawai'i from the 1890s-1970s, that capture the history and nostalgia of old Hawai'i. Among the treasures to be seen are paintings by three giants of early 20th century island painting: Lionel Walden, D. Howard Hitchcock, and Madge Tennent.

This exhibition is presented in partnership with the Art in Public Places Collection from the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, and is supported in part by The Rice Partnership, Hawai'i Tourism Authority, and the County of Maui - Office of Economic Development.

MIRANDA SINGS LIVE: YOU'RE WELCOME TOUR

Wednesday, Dec 6, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater
Colleen Ballinger is the actor, comedian, vocalist, writer, and producer best known for her character, Miranda Sings— a parody of young, self-absorbed social media 'stars' with more bravado and vibrato than talent. She has amassed 20+ million followers and 2+ billion YouTube views, and launched a Netflix series, Haters Back Off. Tickets: $49.50; VIP $75

BILLY COLLINS IN THE GREEN ROOM

Friday, Dec 8, 7:00 pm, McCoy Studio Theater
The Merwin Conservancy presents the former U.S. Poet Laureate Billy Collins, whose critical acclaim and widespread appeal make him "the most popular poet in America," according to The New York Times. Presentation will be followed by Q&A session, with book signing/reception in the courtyard. Presented by FIM Group to benefit the nonprofit Merwin Conservancy. Tickets: $25; students w/ID $10

KATIE THIROUX TRIO

Saturday, Dec 9, 7:30 pm, McCoy Studio Theater
Jazz Maui presents bassist and vocalist, Katy Thiroux. Lending contemporary flair to mainstream stylings, she carries on a hard-swinging bass tradition while channeling the buoyant vocal finesse of singers like Ella Fitzgerald. The trio includes Justin Kauflino, piano, and Matt Witek, drums. Tickets: $35, $45

NAHKO - MY NAME IS BEAR

Sunday, Dec 10, 7:00 pm, Yokouchi Pavilion
Medicine Tribe presents Nahko, of Medicine for the People, promoting his first solo release, My Name Is Bear. A collection of deeply personal songs that tell of his awakening as an artist while traveling through Alaska, Hawai'i, and Louisiana, Nahko calls the album, "Ripe with the coming of age, first love, psychedelic revelations, youthful recklessness, and lucid dreaming." Tickets: $30 advance; $35 day-of-show

TOM SEGURA: NO TEETH NO ENTRY TOUR

Thursday, Dec 14, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater
The comedian best known for his Netflix specials, Mostly Stories and Completely Normal, Tom recently released his third stand up album, which topped the charts. His first two albums, Thrilled and White Girls with Cornrows also debuted at #1, and continue to play heavily on satellite radio and streaming music platforms. Tom tours the comedy clubs, performs at the top comedy festivals, and regularly appears on talk shows and podcasts.
Tickets: $25.50, $35.50, $49.50; prices increase $5.50 day-of-show

AARON LEWIS: THE SINNER TOUR

Saturday, Dec 16, 7:30 pm, Castle Theater
Known for gritty lyrics and hard rock anthems, Aaron Lewis gets back to his country roots with his Sinner album, and its lead single, "That Ain't Country." Lamenting current styles, Lewis pines for the sound of his honky-tonk heroes – with the pain, heartache, and desperation that made the bedrock of traditional country music, and that he feels is missing from the airwaves today. Tickets: $39, $49, $69, $89, $129
